(Or a Windows 7 or higher system)JACKSONVILLE, Florida - Last night's season opener between the Atlanta Legends and Jacksonville IceMen at the Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena was an absolute barn burner. The crowd erupted at every whistle and shot, their cheers nearly drowning out the roar of firecrackers that shot off all around the arena. Championship games can be hard on these teams. Because this one is much more on the line for the IceMen than the Legends, there was a lot of added incentive to leave nothing to chance. "We're going to play our hardest," Jacksonville forward Jose Amador said, "as we always do." Forward Chris LaFlamme would know. He was both the team's leading scorer last season, along with the top scoring defenseman, but this year he's completely different. "There's no doubt," LaF
