According to Memory Stratum 8, John set the pattern for his current set of disciples. The pattern has remained fairly consistent for every disciple who has taken John's name. John was the first disciple. The second, Garbell Silden, is an archaeologist and con artist. The third, Harrow, is an exobiologist. The fourth, lanthe, is a mind hacker. The fifth, lanthe's sister, is a mysterious figure. The sixth, Jean Luc, is an archaeologist. The seventh, Augustine, is a priest-engineer and the eighth, Gideon, is a former psychopomp. There are a few exceptions, the first of which is named Xibrio. During the late Bronze Age, John took a trip to a frontier prison colony on Earth, where he fought off waves of living cultists. He took on a group called the Living Dead, who are also known as the Deadwalkers. This group has been around since the Bronze Age and it also holds a strong bond with John, who treated them harshly during his imprisonment. It is these Deadwalkers who took John's name and claimed him as their leader. They have traveled with him for centuries. Xibrio was their leader back then. The first two disciples, Garbell and Harrow, were apparently close followers of Xibrio, something that John himself should've known considering his expertise in the matter. Of course, John's relationship with the Deadwalkers is more than he has ever openly told Harrow, as is his relationship with their current leader, Xibrio. The Deadwalkers are called the sons of Xibrio by the Ancient Lorepeople, but they are called the Living Dead by John, as they claim the title for themselves. The word kuriou = perfect tense of kurio = to be quick, prompt, or tense. An important element in the resurrection is the quickening of Jesus. Why? Was he not slow to respond to the temptations? It was His flesh that was the enemy? We must understand this fact in order for the resurrection to be a reality for us. The resurrection or the quickening of Jesus is therefore the time when the Holy Spirit totally conforms the life of Jesus to the life of God. It is the time when the power of the holy spirit begins to transform the life of Jesus into the life of God. Once the power of the Spirit transforms the life of Jesus into the life of God, then that life of God is implemented in the life of every believer. That life of God is the life of faith, hope, love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, meekness, and self-control.

More of the earthquake Chapter...The darkness comes over the land, as a deep darkness like the darkness of a womb. There is complete silence and no lights. The city of Jerusalem is in gloom and darkness, with no voice or light. The disciples wait for the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to be born in them. The God of this time is His servant, David's servant, who will break the chains and set the people free. Then the servant breaks the chains of the Beast! Then people look and see a light coming towards them, then continue on and encounter the cosmic stuff and burn-up. For Christ, by his death, and resurrection, vouchsafed to give a divine testimony to the truth and offer of himself as the sole sacrifice, offering, and satisfaction for our sins; his ascension to the right hand of the Father, and the descent of the Holy Spirit, likewise a divine testimony to the truth and offer of himself as the sole Mediator for the obedience of faith in the hearts of men, having taught all men everywhere in all things by his word and example to repent and believe on him through grace; his return in the flesh on the third day, a divine witness to the truth and offer of himself as the Only Mediator for the forgiveness of sins, when all who, through fear of death, injustice, and lust of the flesh, and lawlessness, were not willing to walk in obedience and faith in him, he, in due time, triumphed over in his own person and received their due reward. (Heb 7:27-notes Heb 7:26-notes Heb 7:24-notes ) Jesus was no deceiver or cheat in raising Lazarus from the dead. Jesus raised Lazarus from death so that he might, by faith, be restored to life. Jesus raised Lazarus from death so that he might display to mankind the power and glory of the resurrection. The fact that Lazarus was raised by Jesus from the dead was the divine stamp upon his sacrifice, bloodshedding, and death. There was no force in the world but Jesus, by his power as the Son of God, could raise him from death. This fact at once amounts to the greatest attestation of Jesus as the Son of God, and also proves his power to raise others from death. 5ec8ef588b
